Get your tickets for South London's business Oscar night

The closing date for entries to this year's South London Business Awards has arrived and the firms who have been shortlisted have been notified.

A panel of judges have shortlisted up to eight finalists for each of the 11 categories and the winners will be announced at a glittering Oscar-style ceremony to be held on May 19 in a lavish marquee on the pitch at Selhurst Park, home to Crystal Palace Football Club.

So now is the chance for companies to apply for tickets to the lavish event where the crème de la crème of business in the capital South of the Thames will be named.

"We are very pleased with the response we have had to this year's awards proving that companies are not only working hard to beat the recession, but also seeing the value of promoting themselves to be in a stronger position when the economic upturn comes," said Peter Pledger, chief executive of South London Business, organisers of the awards.

"The award ceremony is a unique opportunity to celebrate and network in style and I would encourage companies in South London to attend."

The awards are sponsored by HSBC and the categories cover a full range of companies and business people including:
